MORE PICS OF LEFT SIDE OF STOCK AND ONE SHOWING THE MUZZEL PROPERLY CROWNED. THE RIFLE AND SCOPE WEIGH 8.6 lbs.

This is a Mauser Model 3000 L (Left Hand) bolt action rifle. I have owned this model rifle since the 1970s when they were imported. This rifle is nicer than a German Weatherby in my opinion. The action is the smoothest I have ever felt. This rifle was made by Heym and has been compared to their Model 20. This model never achieved the following of comparable high-end German rifles; hence they never brought the big money. If you are a lefty this rifle is very sweet. Some sold were barreled actions as this once was. The work to stock it and add the iron sights is first rate. The slim stock feels very nice. The wood and checkering is superb. The barrel was cut down to 22" from 26". It handles much quicker and shoots wonderfully. .375 H&H caliber has been called the grand old lady of Africa. It is a pleasure to shoot. This rifle is near mint condition with original mirror polish blue and glossy stock finish. Dark-wood forend. Really nice fiddleback grain on the stock. Bore is mirror bright with deep rifling. Action is so very smooth and tight. Trigger pull is light, crisp and clean. Bolt is numbered to the gun. The Redfield 1-4X is just right for fast targets. A beautiful rifle made in the style of Weatherby, in very high original condition. Offered at No Reserve. You will be happy with this rifle. YOUR SHARE FOR SHIPPING COST $60.00.
